The below images show identified vehicles with varying degrees of visibility:

From the PCL Map the following features seem to be the most easily identifiable:

1. Front windows for oncoming vehicles.
2. Side windows for vehicles with a side view.
3. Wheels

The below image shows example of front windows and side windows on several cars in the FOV.

The below image shows wheels on vehicles: